⚡ BIO

Russell Hicks is one of the most sought-after comics on the circuit. Razor sharp with a rock star edge, he works regularly as a stand-up, writer, voice over artist and actor.

Russell's 2024 Tour "Happy to Be Here" will span the entire UK on a 7 month run, which includes London's famed West End Leicester Square Theatre.

Russell has appeared on some of the UK's biggest TV networks. He has starred in several episodes of ITV's 'Stand Up Sketch Show' and won the Channel 4 competition series 'Captive Audience' with his fully improvised comedy. He starred in the Prime Video series 'Lovestruck High,' as the loveable Texan Coach Hughes.

He headlines every major club across the UK, including The Stand, Glee Club and Up the Creek, with a monthly residency at Top Secret Comedy Club. He also compères major events like the Leeds and Reading Festivals, as well as historic theatres like the Hammersmith Apollo.

This is alongside his Stateside work with legendary Hollywood clubs The Comedy Store, The Improv and The Laugh Factory.

Russell is an ongoing writer for the Sky Comedy channel. His writing has earned him three Leicester Comedy Festival nods in the BEST SHOW and BEST IMPROVISED SHOW categories. He was shortlisted in 2021 for the prestigious Bridport Creative Writing Award.

For his undeniable and prolific work in live performance, he was endorsed as a Global Talent by Arts Council England in 2022.

A talented voice actor, Russell is the voice of both Sky Comedy and Great Big Story, and is a presenter on Yahoo Entertainment.

Russell regularly opens for his friends Axel Blake (Winner of Britain's Got Talent), Simon Brodwin, Al Murray, and more. He regularly entertains studio audiences at 'Have I Got News For You,' 'The Last Leg,' and 'As Yet Untitled.'

Russell Hicks still can't believe he gets to make people laugh for a living, travel the world, and most importantly not wake up early on Monday mornings.

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

WIN OVER ANY CROWD

An engaging, funny and actionable seminar, leveraging the transferable skills of stand-up comedy to help attendees master their communication skills, and bring their own pitches and presentations to life in a dynamic, adaptable and authentic way.

Russell explains how his improvised style and deft handling of the unexpected allows him to dominate any room with agility, positivity and humour. After all, effectively dispatching a heckler at a comedy night is not unlike tackling unexpected questions from a meeting participant.

Russell breaks down preparation techniques and simple, in-the-room tactics that have been tried and tested in the world's biggest comedy clubs, helping attendees to master their next presentation and win over the crowd, every time.
